

Diocesan membership is the best way for a diocese to support the National Association for Lay Ministry. Through membership, dioceses are supporting the only national organization focused on lay ministry and lay ministry formation. Member dioceses enjoy many benefits including:

- A diocesan listing on the NALM website.
- Five individual memberships
  - Each individual is treated as a full NALM member and will receive all member discounts, newsletters, special on-line access to member only resources, an individual listing in the membership directory and full voting rights.
  - Additional individuals may be added to the Diocesan Membership at $65 each.
- As a new benefit, all ministers within a member diocese will be eligible to receive the discounted membership ($65).

Diocesan membership rates are based on Catholic population on three levels.

Level 1 The smallest one-third of dioceses (110,000 Catholics or less)	$300	Level 2: The middle one-third of dioceses (110,001 to 330,000 Catholics)	$350	Level 3 The largest one-third of dioceses (330,001 or more Catholics)	$400

Annual memberships begin each year on July 1. Dioceses joining mid-year should contact the national office to arrange for a prorated rate or a credit for next year.
